

FISCAL NOTE

SB 4002 - HB 3989

February 4, 2008

SUMMARY OF BILL: Grants discretionary authority to the court to require an individual who fails to comply with an order or decree of child support to attend job training programs in addition to any other penalty. The Department of Human Services (DHS) is authorized to require any individual who is overdue on child support payments to participate in job training programs in cases in which a child is receiving assistance under programs funded through Title IV-A of the Social Security Act.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

MINIMAL

Assumptions:

- This bill grants DHS and the courts an additional conditional option for any individual who is behind in child support payments.
- State or local government agencies will not be required to provide the job training proposed in the bill.
- No fiscal impact on state or local governments.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James W. White, Executive Director

/kml